

Position Announcement: ESOL Teacher, FIUTS UUTI Kiribati Summer Camp
(temporary contract, June 25 – July 26)

The Foundation for International Understanding Through Students (FIUTS) is seeking ESOL teachers for a 4-week summer program for international high school students participating in a summer camp program based on the University of Washington campus. The UUTI will welcome between 50 students and will include separate English classes for students of different language levels.

The ESOL teachers will be responsible for developing curriculum elements in connection with the program's daily activities and delivering 3 hours of English instruction from 9:00am – 12:00pm from Mon-Wednesday and Friday-Saturday.

All teachers are expected to:

- In collaboration with the ESOL team, develop lesson plans for English instruction based on learning goals and daily themes, focusing on speaking skills, listening comprehension, and developing confidence in speaking.
- Deliver three-hour classes to a group of 12-15 students, aged 15-18, on each class day.
- Attend camp-wide events, orientation, and the end-of-program celebration.
- Attend teacher team meetings before the start of the program and a debrief meeting after the end of the program.
- Communicate clearly with the other teachers and FIUTS staff throughout the program to ensure that learning goals are being met and that experiences are similar between classroom groups.
- Oversee classroom norms and ground rules; manage classroom behavior and work with the Camp Manager to address any concerns.
- Ensure class participation by all students.
- Oversee final English language testing and prepare final evaluations for each student.

Qualifications:

- TESOL or secondary ESL certification, or equivalent training/experience;
- Prior experience working with high school students; experience with Micronesia or Pacific Islands a plus;
- Ability to develop and teach interactive lessons with a focus on speaking and listening;
- Ability to work with students from a range of backgrounds and language levels

Compensation is $4,500 for the 2-week session. To apply, send a resume and cover letter to Era Schrepfer, Executive Director, at era@fiuts.org.
